RE: R. Dean Boyer

Dear Mr. Bloomer:

Recently this office has learned of correspondence you received from a Mr. Thomas E. Hurley (5-17-83) concerning the above-mentioned individual.

Mr. Boyer entered a plea of guilty to the charge of CHILD MOLESTING, CLASS C FELONY on March 4, 1981 in Porter Superior Court, Judge Bruce Douglas presiding. The Court, at this time, took judgment under advisement for increments of six (6) months for a period of five (5) years. At the end of the probationary five (5) years, the Court would then enter judgment of conviction. Mr. Boyer is actively being supervised by this department for this five (5) year period.

The purpose in my writing you is to request any additional information with regard to Mr. Boyer's "behavior" you may have - or if you might refer me to someone who is aware of this situation. In your response, would you kindly mention whether or not any criminal charges have been filed in this matter and, if so, when and where? It is my position that Mr. Boyer's conduct should be brought to light and I would sincerely appreciate any assistance and cooperation on your part. Thank you in advance for your cooperation, please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Dear Gus,

Tom Peine, North Star District Chairman, and I had lunch with Ronald Dean Boyer today. The purpose of our meeting was to get Mr. Boyer's side of the story concerning several alleged inappropriate sexual incidents with younger boys.

First of all, Mr. Boyer admitted that while in Valparaiso, about three years ago, he had been involved with a young newspaper boy where they "fondled each other". Mr. Boyer was not specific about what parts of the anatomy were being fondled, but his "girlfriend", who is a student at Christian Theological Seminary and a Den Leader with 3 sons, told me yesterday that Dean had told her that he and the boy had "fondled each other's penises".

While Dean readily talks about having some problems with self worth, he does not apparently think that what he did was any big deal.

Since about last December as Scoutmaster of Troop 32, atleast three parents have noted "inappropriate behavior" on Mr. Boyer's part with the boys. Two of the fathers met with Mr. Boyer and discussed his behavior which appeared to them to be approaching "pedophilia". [REDACTED] one of the two fathers that confronted Mr. Boyer, works daily for a local agency that is involved with child abuse and the other father, [REDACTED] is a chaplain at Methodist Hospital. Neither father had personally witnessed enough to take what they had seen or what they felt to the local prosecutor. What they had observed was a lot of rough playing with hitting on the buttocks and reported incidents of goosing and poking in the groin area with a stick. A boy was heard to say, by [REDACTED] "Stop it, that's not nice!" [REDACTED] did not see what Mr. Boyer did.

Faced with a show down with the Troop Committee, Mr. Boyer resigned maintaining that he had done nothing wrong. I knew of a "personality conflict" that was developing, but neither I nor the committee knew about the incident in Valparaiso until a call came from the Northern Indiana Council expressing concern that Mr. Boyer was a Scoutmaster in Indianapolis. It wasn't until the day of the Troop Committee meeting that I then learned from Stan Mullin that his concern and that of the Northern Indiana Council were the same.

I recommended to the Troop Committee that they accept Dean's resignation that night and to select another Scoutmaster. I further suggested to Mr. Boyer that he let his resignation made in haste and anger stand until he and I could get together and discuss what had happened in Valparaiso, at that time I did not know the cause of the conflict here at Troop 82.

Today, we suggested that it might be best for both him and Scouting if he would voluntarily remove himself from the Troop 82 situation and not involve himself with youth at all, even if just for 6 months. He flatly refused that suggestion. I then told Mr. Boyer that it was my opinion that he should consider himself "persona non grata" with the Boy Scouts of America. He acknowledged that I could probably make that stick in Indianapolis, but he hoped that I would not. He backed off from trying to be a Scoutmaster but became a little hostile when I said that he could not be a Merit Badge Counselor either.

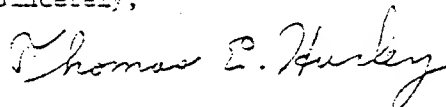

The prosecutor in Valparaiso has a six year "string" on Mr. Boyer. As soon as the remaining three years are up, Mr. Boyer said that he was leaving the state with the implication that he would then get back into Scouting.

Mr. Boyer showed little sign of any guilt or any serious wrong doing on his part. But he did repeatedly say that for us to ostracize him from Scouting was unfair. His feelings seemed to be only for himself and he had absolutely no empathy for what a parent might think.

Tom Paine ask Mr. Boyer for his suggested alternate course of action and got no answer.

This is a summary of what I've been able to accumulate.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Hurley
North Star District Executive
